

In an email from San Carlos Lions Club President Grant DuBois:

From: DuBois, Grant [mailto:Grant.DuBois@cbtnorcal.com]
Sent: Monday, January 17, 2011 9:46 PM
To: DuBois, Grant
Cc: lionpaul@chapelofthehighlands.com
Subject: New meeting location for SC Lions Club on Jan. 27

Lions:

At the last board of directors' meeting, the board unanimously approved a new meeting location for the next regular meeting at 6 p.m. on Thurs., Jan. 27. This meeting will be held at Le Figaro (aka Mediterranean Fusion), 1105 San Carlos Ave., in San Carlos, which is just a few doors east of Vic's. The owner of Le Figaro will provide three or four menu choices, and the cost will not exceed $20/person. Club members are welcome to bring their own beer and wine because Le Figaro doesn't serve alcohol.

In the interest of better serving all club members and eventually returning to San Carlos, regular meetings will be held at Le Figaro not only on Thurs., Jan. 27, but also on Thurs., Feb. 24, and Thurs., March 24. The board then will re-evaluate Le Figaro as a meeting place at its April board meeting. Meanwhile, the Thurs., Feb. 10, and Thurs., March 10, regular meetings still will be held at The Waterfront Restaurant in Redwood City.

The schedule for the next five regular meetings follows:

6 p.m. on Thurs., Jan. 27, at Le Figaro, 1105 San Carlos Ave., in San Carlos.

6 p.m. on Thurs., Feb. 10, at The Waterfront Restaurant, 1 Uccelli Blvd., in Redwood City.

6 p.m. on Thurs., Feb 24, at Le Figaro, 1105 San Carlos Ave., in San Carlos.

6 p.m. on Thurs., March 10, at The Waterfront Restaurant, 1 Uccelli Blvd., in Redwood City.

6 p.m. on Thurs., March 24, at Le Figaro, 1105 San Carlos Ave., in San Carlos.

Grant