Lions Clubs Code of Ethics

♦ To Show my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.

♦ To Seek success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

♦ To Remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another’s; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.

♦ Whenever a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards others, to resolve such doubt against myself.

♦ To Hold friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one to another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.

♦ Always to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state, and my community, and to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act, and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor and means.

♦ To Aid others by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

♦ To Be Careful with my criticism and liberal with my praise; to build up and not destroy.
Making Memories

When “We Serve” together, we build our club strength, our feeling of family and our sense of purpose.

“We Serve” the community, but we also serve to strengthen the ties that bind us together as Lions and as family.

Heart of Lions
By: IP Gudrun Yngvadottir

"I encourage you all to remember the fellowship that is essential to being a Lion, and to welcome new members not into a club, but into a family. After all, it's this family - that we created for ourselves with people who share the love of service in their hearts - that can be the ties that sustain us throughout our lives."

Register on LCI web site at https://weserve.org/newvoices/#webinars

On this web page, you can also read the social feed of New Voices stories and read about the bios of the various chairpersons and Area reps for the new program, and download a regional workshop planning guide.

A snippet from the bio of the New Voices Global Chairperson, PID Sangeeta Jatia…

“It was the year 2002 – when I was planning to become a District Governor. In my naïveté I believed that to be a leader I must act and behave like a man! Would anyone follow me if I looked like a woman? … But as I worked in this organization, I realized I could be equally powerful without a jacket. Lions were not impressed because I was mimicking men. They looked up to me because I brought different ideas to the table. …” read more from her bio.

LCI and MD4 Debut New Web Sites

Both LCI and MD4 have debuted new web sites. This one above is the LCI web site. There are 5 ways the new web site can help enhance our service. 1) The Service Launchpad guides us through a few simple questions to help find a project that supports one of our 5 global causes—diabetes, hunger, vision, childhood cancer and the environment. 2) The Resource Center—search full of guides, media, presentations and more. 3) The Club Locator—fully integrated with MyLion app for clubs to showcase info and photos to attract new members 4) Enhanced Storytelling—variety of media including blogs, photos and videos told by Lions 5) Simple Donations—a donation button on every page of the web site and a streamlined process to make for easy donations.

MD4 created a site designed for the public to see. It is called www.californialions.org. On this new site, is a variety of options for the public to learn more about what MD4 does. There is a section on partners, where one can link into the sites of City of Hope, Lions in Sight, Lions Eye Foundation, California Lions Foundation, LCIF, Lions Float, Inc, Student Speaker Foundation, Student Speaker Contest, Lions Sight & Hearing Foundation, California Friends in Sight, Lions KidSight USA, and Society for the Blind to learn more about our partners. There’s media to read about MD4. In the How We Serve section one can learn about Guide Dogs for the Blind or Canine Companions, etc. There’s an interactive map for Eyeglass Drop Off locations throughout the state. It needs work because it says there are NO drop off locations within 25 miles of San Mateo, CA! Check out the new web site at http://www.californialions.org

LCIF To Provide Gender Equity Intervention in India. (LCIF Story)

Lions Clubs International Foundation (LCIF), in collaboration with Breakthrough Communications PL and the Independent Television Service, Inc. (ITVS), has launched a new initiative on gender-based violence prevention in Delhi, India. The initial training took place October 10 and 11, 2017, in conjunction with International Day of the Girl Child. The project promotes a positive school climate and safe learning environment for all students. LCIF allocated US$100,000 in seed funding for this multi-organizational collaborative project.

The initial pilot intervention, titled “Dosti Ka Safar” (The Journey of Friendship), was built using Lions Quest lessons and programming, and will help foster and cultivate greater gender equity among 2,000 youth in New Delhi and surrounding regions. This customized intervention utilizes teacher-led discussions, serialized films, and the Lions Quest model of “skills practice” to extend constructive behaviors from the lessons into the everyday classroom and community.

Editor’s Corner...

It arrived a day after our District Governor visitation. A full sized plaque with a pin to showcase a $1000 donation to Lions Clubs International Foundation. I asked our District Chair if I could be presented at our Cabinet meeting. A shout of Thanks to members and Lions who gave their congratulations to me.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving!

San Mateo Lions at Joint Council Halloween Party

Each year, our two Councils have a joint meeting that is a Halloween party, usually held at the Basque Cultural Center in SSF. This season, 4 of our members attended. Lion Marian came as a banana. Lion Pat H won honors as a Fan Club promoting PDG Ken for International Director. Lion Pat G came dressed as a 20’s flapper lady. Lion John came as his usual Mardi Gras Jester.
